

Question 71 (1 point) ✓ Saved

The technique of mirroring involves the therapist creating music that is compatible with the client's, which conveys empathy and validates the client experience.

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

Question 72 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Canada is currently recognized as the country that founded the profession of music therapy.

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

Question 73 (1 point) ✓ Saved

What does a descended voice box lead to?

- ☐ It allows non-human animals to increase the control and frequency of sound for mating purposes.
- ☒ It leads to increased range and control of the human voice, leading to the ability to create more sounds.
- ☐ It restricts the vocal range of non-human animals, leading to more specified mating calls.
- ☐ It decreases the range of sounds a human can make, increasing the ability to fine-tune and perfect speech.

Question 74 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Which of the following statements about music therapy interventions are false?

- ☐ Improvising and facilitated music listening are music therapy interventions.
- ☒ Songwriting and lyric analysis are considered both a music therapy intervention and approach.
- ☐ Music therapy interventions are different from music therapy approaches.
- ☐ All of the above.

Question 75 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Which statement is true regarding the eclectic model?

- ☒ An MTA using the eclectic model, may switch between approaches within their skill-set to facilitate different goals.
- ☐ An MTA must complete a post-graduate training program specific to the eclectic model.
- ☐ In the eclectic model, the client follows the lead of the MTA, increasing the client's sense of security through structure
- ☐ An MTA using the eclectic model incorporates all the music therapy approaches discussed in the course regardless of training.

Question 76 (1 point) ✓ Saved

CMT is limited in effectiveness when not all members of the group come from the same cultural background.

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

Question 77 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Singing provides a variety of benefits to individuals but is only effective if they have prior singing experience.

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

Question 78 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Music therapy is not implemented to improve the quality of life of people with dementia.

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

Question 79 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Which goal(s) is/are typical to working with clients diagnosed with ASD?

- ☐ improving communication
- ☐ assisting with social interactions
- ☐ helping manage behavioural issues
- ☒ all of the above

Question 80 (1 point) ✓ Saved

Jen would like to become a music therapist in Canada. She has completed a BA in music and has been volunteering at a long-term care facility. Does she now meet the requirements to call herself a music therapist?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No, she would first need to complete the Board Certified Exam
- ☐ No, she would need to complete a BA Music Therapy
- ☒ No, she would first need to meet the mandates of the CAMT