

1.
 - a. 3 candidate keys
 - i. PlayerID
 - Assuming every player has a player ID, and player IDs cannot be repeated.
 - ii. (teamID, number, startYear)
 - Assuming every team has a teamID, and teamID cannot be repeated.
 - Players can only play for 1 team per year.
 - No two players on the same team can have the same number.
 - iii. (teamID, position, startYear)
 - Assuming every team has a teamID, and teamID cannot be repeated.
 - Teams can only have one player per position on the roster.
 - Players can only play for one team per year.
 - b. Start year must be greater than or equal to drafted year – referential constraint.
Date of birth must be less than or equal to drafted year – tuple constraint.
A player ID in “plays” must also be present in “players” – referential constraint.